

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, July 8 1704

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 8.

Vienna, June 25.

THE Discourse continues that the King of the Romans will shortly go from hence accompanied by the Elector Palatin, to take upon him the Command of the Army of the Empire. The Secretaries of the Ambassadors of England and Holland at the Ottoman Port, having stop'd here a while in their return from London and the Hague, are gone from hence for Constantinople, and have taken their Way through Croatia, because of the Difficulty of passing through Hungary; 'tis said they carry with them Letters for the Grand Signior from Her Majesty of Great Brittain and the States General, congratulating him on his Advancement to the Throne of his Ancestors. The two Deputies of the Malecontents in Hungary, set out for that Kingdom the 25th of June, with the Emperor's Declaration upon several Heads of the Grievances the Malecontents complain of, which these Deputies had laid before him. 'Tis rumour'd that the Emperor offers the Malecontents by these Deputies, I. That he will consent, that, under certain Restrictions, the Crown of Hungary shall for the future be elective. II. That the Protestants shall be maintain'd in all their ancient Privileges. III. That there shall be a general Amnesty without Exception. IV. That the Trade and Commerce of Hungary shall be reestablish'd on a good Foot. V. And that there shall be a general Assembly of the Estates of the Country every three Years. The Baron van Gortz is gone from hence for Turin, with the Ratification of the Treaty between the Emperor and the Duke of Savoy.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated July 11.

Vienna, June 28. His Highness the Elector Palatin had determin'd to go from hence the 26th instant, and accordingly his heavy Baggage was sent away some days before; but his Electoral Highness was humbly desir'd by some Hungarians that are in this City, to tarry here a little longer, assuring him that their Nation had great Confidence in him, and were of Opinion, that if his Electoral Highness cannot mediate an Accommodation between them and the Emperor, no other Person can. They protested to him likewise, that the Rebels commit fewer Acts of Hostility than otherwise they would, because they are perswaded, his Electoral Highness uses powerful Endeavours to bring about an Accommodation. Whereupon the Elector had the Goodness to tell them, he would, at their Intreaty, put off his Journey a few days. Count Wallenstein, who was taken Prisoner by the French in a Dutch Man of War off the Coast of Portugal almost two Years ago, and carried to France, arriv'd here yesterday.

Milan, June 21. On Sunday last Te Deum was Sung in our Cathedral, for the Discovery of the Conspiracy to deliver Barcelona into the Hands of the Enemy, and for the Success of the Arms of the two Crowns in Portugal: Informations are taking, preparatory to the Trial of the Persons of Quality lately imprison'd in our Castle; and particularly against the Marquess Malaspina, who stands charg'd with holding Intelligence with the Enemy.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated July 8.

Turin, June 23. The Rivers overflow'd again the 18th; so much, that the Horse in the Camp at Crescentino and two Regiments of Foot that were posted near the side of the Po, were oblig'd to decamp. We are inform'd the Enemy was incommoded more. They had three Officers drown'd at Trino, and at Casal they lost a considerable quantity of Bombs and other Ammunitions of War, which were brought out of the Magazines to the side of the Po, in order to be sent to Vercelli. The 20th his Royal Highness's Army quitted the Camp at Crescentino, and advanc'd to Ales, between Vercelli and Ivrea, where it is encamp'd at present. The 21st we receiv'd Advice, that the Count de Prela, Governour of Vercelli, had made a vigorous Sally on the Besieged, of whom he kill'd a considerable Number, and took divers Prisoners. The same day his Royal Highness gave a Treat in his Camp to all the Generals and principal Officers of the Army, the Artillery firing as they sat at Table. The occasion of this Rejoycing is variously reported, but we cannot learn the Truth.

Turin, June 27. Our Troops that had quitted the Camp at Crescentino, because of the overflowing of the River, are return'd thither since the Waters are fallen. Only a flying Camp is kept at Ales. The French Troops commanded by the Duke de la Feuillade, that were encamp'd at Buzzolino, broke up from thence the 25th after they had burnt their Barracks and Forrage, and we hear they are march'd towards Pignerol by the way of Perouse. The Body of 3000 Men commanded by the Count of Castellamonte, which was posted at Veillane to observe the Enemy, is likewise decamp'd and march'd towards Carmagnole. Two Deputies from the Vaudois, who went to the Camp at Crescentino, are return'd hither this Morning, with his Royal Highness's Orders concerning the Operations of the Campaign.

Basle, June 28. The Regents of the Canton of Zurich, in pursuance of their Resolution (mention'd in our former) to be content with the Neutrality of part of Savoy, wrote a Letter the 23d instant to the Marquess de Puisieux, in the Name of all the Cantons, to demand whether he would on the part of his Master enter into a Treaty with them for the Neutrality of all Savoy, or at least of the Chablais, the Faucign, the Territory of Geneva, and Montmeillan. To which that Minister return'd the following Answer.

Magnificent Lords!

I Receiv'd the Letter which you gave your selves the Trouble to write to me the 23d of this Month, I gave you sufficiently to understand while the Diet was held here in February, and during your last general Assembly at Baden, what the Intentions of the King

King my Master were touching the Neutrality of all Savoy.

As for the Offers I made on the part of my Master, so those two Diets, in relation to the said Neutrality, I hope he has still the same Sentiments: And therefore I will send to him for Orders to treat with you.

Mean time, Magnificent Lords; I desire you not to extend your Demands beyond what his Majesty has been pleas'd to offer you; because his Complaisance to make you easie, is already very prejudicial to his Service, and I cannot take upon me to send any such Demands to his Majesty. I pray God, &c.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, on Tuesday next being the 11th of July, will be reviv'd a Comedy call'd, Secret Love, or, The Maiden Queen. Written by the late Great Poet Mr. Dryden. With a new Prologue spoken by Mr. Pinckman, representing a French Officer (in the Service of the Elector of Bavaria) just before the Engagement at Donawert; And an Epilogue by him, personating the same Officer after the Battle. The part of Celadon to be perform'd by Mr. Wilks. With several Entertainments of Singing and Dancing.

This day is publish'd,

The MONTHLY REGISTER: Or, Memoirs of the Affairs of Europe, &c. Digested from the several Advices that came to England in June 1704. Printed for Sam. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Brittain, and Sold by A. Baldwin in Warwick-Lane. Price 6d.

The Famous Antirheumatick Tincture, prepared only by Mr. Geo. Wilson Chymist, at his Laboratory in Well-yard near St. Bartholomew's Hospital by Smithfield. The Reputation this Tincture has acquir'd by its wonderful Operation, put me beyond thought of ever publishing it again in this manner, till I was inform'd that it was counterfeited by some Person that falsely pretends to it, whereas its true Preparation exceeds the Skill of common Jumbleers of congres for Medicines. It hath cured several hundred Persons of Quality and others, not only of Rheumatick Pains, but also of other chronick Diseases. They who have the Curiosity to be farther satisfied of its Effects, may at the place aforesaid see several Letters from Persons of Quality, Physicians, Chyrurgeons and Apothecaries, giving an account of the admirable Cures it has perform'd. It is no where sold but at the place above mention'd, and by my Daughter Mrs. Wilson, at the Hermet's Head six Doors from James-street in Long-Acre towards Drury-lane. It is put up in Bottles containing something more than half a quarter of a Pint, at 2s. 6d. the Bottle with Directions. The Materia Medica, and Modus Preparandi (in general) shall not be denied to any Physician, especially to those Gentlemen that have been enter'd by me in the excellent and useful Science of Chymistry; of which number there are many eminent Physicians now living in England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Italy, Germany, Swedeland, &c.

Tho. Clark, M. D. who restor'd instantly to Sight the Lady Bellasis, 15 Years stone Blind, in presence of the late K. James, by whose Royal Command he was Sworn his Physician and Oculist in Ordinary, with a Salary, as before he had been to K. Charles II. from whom he had a Gold Medal, having since made the greatest Improvements in the Opticks, by curing all Diseases incident to the Eyes, particularly by finding out the only Ophthalmick Secret for the Gutta Serena, or blindness, thro' Obstructions of the Optick Nerves, which dissolves Suffusions, the Seed of Cataracts, and takes away Dimness, Mores, Flies, Gnats, Sparks, Mists, Clouds, Cobwebs, &c. from before the Eyes. Symptoms of growing blindness, if not by this infallible means timely prevented, as Hundreds of blind and defective in sight have found, after all other means fail'd, as any one may be satisfied in, by the Names and Places of their Abode, is to be advis'd with at his House in Old Southampton Buildings over against Grays-Inn-Gate, Holborn, a Gold Head over the Door.

On Monday next will be publish'd,

The Fourteenth and last Volume of Archbishop Tillotson's Sermons, set forth by Dr. Ralph Barker, on the following Subjects, viz. The Folly of Hazarding Eternal Life for Temporal Enjoyments. The Reasonableness of Fearing God more than Man. The Efficacy of Prayer for obtaining the Holy Spirit. The bad and good use of God's signal judgments upon others. To which are annexed Prayers compos'd by him for his own use. A Discourse to his Servants before the Sacrament. And Prayers compos'd by him for the use of King William. Together with Tables to all the 14 Volumes; One of the Text preach'd upon. Another of the places of Scripture occasionally explain'd and enlarg'd upon. A Third an Alphabetical Table of Matter. Printed for R. Chiswell at the Rose and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard. All the former Volumes that were scarce are Reprinted. So that Gentlemen may now be furnish'd with compleat Sets, or perfect up those they have already bought.

+++ A Doctor in Physick, Cures all the Degrees, and Indispositions, in Venereal Persons, and by a most easie, safe, and expeditious Method: He likewise gives his Advice in all Diseases, and Prescribes a Cure. Dr. Harborough (a Graduate Physician) in Great Knight-Rider-street, near Doctors-Commons.

The Royal Essence for the Hair of the Head and Periwigs, being the most delicate and charming Perfume in Nature, and the greatest Preserver of Hair in the World, for it keeps that of Periwigs (a much longer time than usually) in the Curl, and fair Hair from fading or changing colour, makes the Hair of the Head grow thick, strengthens and confirms its Roots, and effectually prevents it from falling off or splitting at the ends, makes the Powder continue in all Hair longer than it possibly will, by the use of any other thing; by its incomparable Odour and Fragrance it strengthens the Brain, revives the Spirits, quickens the Memory, and makes the Heart cheerful, never raises the Vapours in Ladies, &c. being wholly free from (and abundantly more delightful and pleasant than) Musk, Civet, &c. 'tis indeed an unparallel'd fine Scent for the Pocket, and perfumes Handkerchiefs, &c. excellently. To be had only at Mr. Allcraft's a Toyshop at the Bluecoat Boy by Popes-head-Alley against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, seal'd up, at 2s. 6d. a Bottle with Directions.

The Balsam of Cathay, being the most effectual Remedy for giving present ease in the Gout and Rheumatick pains, very often in an hours time in a Fit of the Gout, though in the time of its greatest rage and violence, and adwaging the Swellings thereof in a short time, is to be had only at Malon's Coffee-house in Bartholomew-lane behind the Royal Exchange, at 2s. 6d. per Box, seal'd up with Directions. It never decays. At the same place, and no where else, is to be had the Golden Snuff, so well approved of for the Diseases of the Head, at 6d. per paper, with Directions seal'd up. If in quantity taken allowance for Sale.
